Take Dodson's And Stay On Your Feet.

Taking Calomel means staying home for the day—take Dodson's Liver Tone and save a day's work. If an attack of constipation or biliousness hits you there's no need to take a dose of calomel and spend at least a day getting over the effects of it. W. H. Winrow sells Dodson's Liver Tone, which they guarantee takes the place of calomel and starts a lazy liver without bad after-effects.

Dodson's Liver Tone does all the good that calomel can do, yet it is absolutely harmless to young people and old. It is a pleasant tasting vegetable liquid that will relieve constipation or sour stomach or other troubles that go along with a lazy liver, without restriction of habit or diet. You don't leave off any of the things you regularly do when you take Liver Tone.

A large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone sells for 50 cents. Get the genuine and if you are not pleased with it the druggist from whom you bought it will give your money back with a smile.

The Telephone "S. O. S." Saved the Farm

"One day last fall my wife and I started for a drive, leaving the house deserted. A short while after we'd passed Jones' place, Mrs. Jones saw smoke coming from our roof.

"She ran to the telephone—Got Mrs. Reed who operates the switchboard located in her home. Mrs. Reed called all the nearby people on the line (two long rings—the emergency signal) and they put the fire out with little damage."

A Telephone on the Farm connected with the Bell System is a protection and safe-guard in all emergencies.

The following young folks were present: Misses Ida and Laura Poerner, Emma, Celestina and Louisa Weynand, Deila, Elsie and Clara Lutz, Mollie Zerr, Mollie and Annie Nehr, Clara and Maggie Remkus and Miss Pichot, Messrs. Herman, Henry, Paul and Aug. Poerner, Henry Weynand, Adolph Graff, Eric Lutz, Herman and Robert Koch, Arthur Ney, Joe Pichot, Alf. Bader, John Callahan, Walter Remkus, Joe Nehr, Nic. Kiper and Mr. Gilliam, and quite a number of both ladies and young men whose names we failed to get. Those whom we failed to get the names will please excuse us for you are welcome to come again.

The evening was spent in dancing. At 12 o'clock the young ladies served cake and, of course, the young men had to furnish some nice cool drinks which they did.

Dancing was kept up until 3 o'clock when "Home, Sweet Home" was played and they all left for their respective homes, as happy as happy can be, wishing the two young men many happy returns of the day.

The Week in Base Ball.

The Brackett ball team invaded our town for a series of three games, Aug. 26-7, and the local boys captured the odd.

The first game Wednesday was a pretty game, Hondo winning by 3 to 1. It was Bradley all the way, his head-work getting him out of some tight corners. Starnes made the hit that won the game. Brad. allowed four hits in this game and he deserved to win.

The second game Wednesday was a slugfest, the visitors also making a good many misques—something strange to them. Jake Miller was the hurler for this session and he didn't have to exert himself, the home boys romping home with all sails furled. Final result in this game was 16 to 5.

First game batteries: Brackett, Kline and Boyd; Hondo, Bradley and Goff.

Second game batteries: Oberlies and Boyd, Miller and Goff.

Thursday Hondo and Brackett staged another pretty game, this time the Bracketts winning by a score of 5 to 4. Carle attempted to pitch for the home boys, but was pulled after the first inning, as he didn't have anything except his glove and a hopeful trust, and the visitors scored three runs before George could take a deep breath. Iron Man Brad. went in after the first, and after that the Bracketts could only push two runs across. One in the fourth and another in the fifth. Hondo came from behind like the game boys they are, and before the visitors could close up the home boys tallied four runs, which caused the Brackett boys no little worry, but when a hit was needed Veltman tightened up and acted like a regular tight-wad.

The features of all these games was the sportsman-like way in which the Brackett boys played the game. They tried hard all the time, and were gentlemen both on and off the diamond. We hope to be able to entertain them again next summer.

Batteries for the third game: Veltman and Stadler; Carle, Bradley and Goff. Umpire, Dr. Fletcher.

In one of the hardest played games of the year Devine beat Sabinal in a special match game. These teams playing here at Hondo is neutral ground. The score was 7 to 2.

Johnson for Sabinal couldn't get working right until about the fourth inning, but by that time the Devine boys had the game and gone to the woods with it. Sabinal never quit and tried hard all the time, but with five runs lead the boys from the sand were never in danger—romping home while Sabinal was asleep at the switch.

Batteries: Sabinal, Johnson and North. Devine, Cratchfield and Crawford. Umpire, Dr. Smith.

Next Thursday, Sept. 3rd, Hondo and Devine will cross bats on the local diamond for the second game of the season between these two nines, Hondo having lost the first to Devine last Sunday by a score of 7 to 4, at Lacost.

Serious Accident.

While a train was switching on the north side-track Tuesday afternoon, Miss Bertha Newton and her mother attempted to cross the track just west of the Holloway warehouse in an automobile. Neither the occupants of the car or the engineer on the locomotive could see each other on account of the warehouse, and the engine struck the car and pushed it along the track about thirty feet before it could be stopped. Mrs. Newton leaped from the car and escaped injury but Miss Bertha fell and fractured her leg just above the ankle.

Fortunately the train was going at the rate of only about two miles an hour and the pilot of the engine went under the car in such a way as to lift it up and carry it along the track without doing little more than demolishing the fender.

The injured lady is doing as well as could be expected.

Taken-Up.

A Bible Chart.

Elder L. H. Harbord, who is conducting a series of meetings at the Christian Church, is exhibiting something unique and original in biblical study. Elder Harbord has painted a chart in which he arranges the old and new testaments in parallel columns representing a book-stand. These books he has grouped in classes so that at a glance one can see the number of books composing the scriptures and to what classification it belongs.

This is but a preliminary step to a more exhaustive study of the subjects and the various books of the bible which he expects to follow up in his further studies.

Using this chart as a basis, Elder Harbord will preach on the subject "How We Got Our Bible" at the service tomorrow night, and extends an urgent invitation to all bible students to attend the services.

Married.

In the presence of members of the family and a few intimate friends, Mr. Robert Saathoff and Miss Ida Britsch were united in the bonds of holy wedlock at the New Fountain Methodist church Sunday afternoon, August 23, 1914. The pastor Rev. J. F. Koch performed the nuptial ceremony.

The happy pair left on the evening train for San Antonio where they are making their home.

Mr. Saathoff is a well known Medina County boy and has many friends among the Anvil Herald's readers who join us in congratulations on having won so charming a bride. Mrs. Saathoff is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Britsch and numbers her friends by her acquaintances.

The Anvil Herald wishes them bonvoyage on the journey through life.

An Arrest Made.

Recently some seven or eight mules have been stolen from parties near Eagle Pass and Deputy Sheriff Henry Etter has been on the look-out for the thieves. Friday evening, suspecting that some of the missing animals were enroute to San Antonio, he stopped over in Hondo and awaited their arrival here. During the night a party came in with a bunch of mules and stopped at a local camp yard. Among the mules, Mr. Etter found two of those he was searching for and promptly arrested those in charge of them and lodged them in jail here.

Those arrested are Tomas Franks, Hal Bowles, Jose San Miguel, Jose Gomez and Felipe Martinez, all young fellows from Eagle Pass and well known to Mr. Etter. They claim to have bought the mules found in their possession.

The Most-Talked of Car in the World Today is the HUDSON Light Six-40

This is simply because it is a car that possesses universal appeal. It is more nearly the IDEAL CAR than any other. It is closer to automobile perfection than anything that has come before it.

Laying aside altogether the question of price it makes a brilliant showing beside any car in the world, of any size, on any basis.

Cars that cost twice its price cannot do the things that it can do. Cars of larger size, and greater [rated] power, and more pretensions, when put side by side with the HUDSON Light Six show no superiority.

It carries up to seven passengers in the greatest possible comfort. It shows a mileage record per gallon of gasoline that positively amazes even its designers. It will run farther and faster with less tire trouble and cost than cars of far less power and capacity. It is widely conceded the handsomest car of the year. Its list of conveniences and modern equipment is unsurpassed.

So tremendous has been the demand for the Light Six that even the huge HUDSON factory simply has been unable to fill all orders. But now the factory is shipping close to 100 cars per day and we feel confident that future deliveries can soon be made right on time.

There MAY BE a delay of a few days in getting your car. But isn't it WELL WORTH WAITING FOR? And if you call NOW and place your order you will be just that much nearer the day when you will be driving one of these magnificent, world-famed HUDSONS.

Come and see the new model just arrived by express at our garage.

Lifted Burdens.

The camel, at the close of day, Kneels down upon the sandy plain
To have his burden lifted off And rest again.

My soul! thou, too, shouldst to thy knees,
When daylight draweth to a close,
To have thy Master lift the load
And grant repose.

The camel kneels at morning dawn
To have his guide replace the load, Then rises up anew to take The desert road.

So shouldst thou kneel at morning dawn,
That God may give thee daily care, Assured that he no load too great Will make thee bear.

THE Dry Farming Congress has just about been rained out

Dry Farming Congress was in getting those most vitally concerned in it to come in out

NATURAL good is so intimately connected with moral good, and natural evil with moral evil, that I am certain as if I heard a voice proclaim it, that God is on the side of virtue. He has learnt much and has not lived in vain, who has practically discovered that most strict and necessary connection that does and ever will exist between vice and misery, and virtue and happiness.—Colton.

THE Texas Legislature is convened in extraordinary session at Austin to deal with the cotton situation. The country is face to face with an unusual emergency and the tendency, unfortunately, is to grow hysterical.
In such times, statesmanship can not be too careful to avoid adopting immature plans and setting precedents that will rise up in future to vex the country.
To be sure the Legislature should afford such relief as lies within its power and afford it quickly. But before doing so it should bring its best thought and most unselfish patriotism to bear upon the subject in hand.

In inciting the Japanese to hostilities against the Germans England is committing a crime against Caucasian civilization that she may live to rue. Whether or not Germany hath her quarrel just with her white neighbors is beside the question.
There can be no justification for setting the Brown dragon on any division of the Caucasian family, and in doing so England will lose that moral support of her white cousins which is so essential to the success of nations. Success to English arms now—if the Japanese are to claim part or share in the spoils of that victory—will be fraught with greater dangers to civilization than will the gratified ambitions of any German war-lord, however great.

Fifty Texas Cotton Mills. (Dallas Times Herald.)

The time has come to do things that count; things that will tell in real progress and prosperity.

Cotton should be king. Cotton must be king if Texas is to prosper.
Never again should any European event be permitted to paralyze the cotton industry in Texas. No emperor's word should be sufficient to deprive a Texas cotton farmer's home of the necessities of life.

Why depend upon a foreign merchant marine to transport raw cotton to foreign mills for manufacture? Why not manufacture all Texas grown cotton in Texas? Why should not Texas lead in manufactures as well as in agriculture?

The legislature is without power to grant immunity from taxation for any period to encourage the establishment of factories. The constitution forbids it. But, fortunately, it has a more potent inducement to offer.

There is no constitutional impediment to an offer by the state to provide convict labor, for a fixed period, at a low, or even nominal cost to factories built at once for the manufacture of cotton.

It is easily possible for the legislature to put under way within sixty days the construction of fifty new cotton mills by an offer of this sort.

Convict labor is not an asset, but a liability of the state. The convict system is now costing the state between one and two millions a year. If every convict were used in factories without compensation to the state except relief from the cost of maintenance, the state would save nearly two millions a year.
It has nothing to lose by adopting the plan here proposed, and everything to gain.

If the convicts can be used to lay the foundations for a great cotton industry, the results would be of incalculable benefit to all the people of Texas for all time to come. The manufacture of cotton within sight of the cotton field means a saving on transportation cost of millions piled upon millions every year.
It means that the cotton farmer would become the most independent producer to be found in the world, and that all interests and industries dependent upon him would enjoy great and permanent prosperity.

The only objection that could or will be made to this proposal is that it would bring convict labor into competition with free labor. Such an objection at such an hour would be as timely as to resist the effort of a convict to save a child from drowning.

Fifty new cotton mills put in operation in Texas right now would not displace any free labor, but their results would soon put back on the pay roll many laborers who are now idle.
When fully developed and the convict labor returned to the state, they would furnish an avenue of employment that never will exist in Texas unless it is provided by an emergency measure such as this.

Great crises bring great opportunities. Captains of American industries are now planning to extend American trade through the world.

The dream of a great cotton industry in Texas is still but a dream, yet it may be turned into a reality because of the conditions forced upon us by a European war. Texas has the means to do it. The legislature to meet next Monday will immortalize itself if it has the courage and intelligence to employ them.

Villa, an uneducated Indian from the mountains, set the factory wheels of Chihuahua to moving within thirty days after his flag floated over the city.
Is not a Texas legislature equal to a Mexican Indian in meeting a great emergency?

San Antonio Plane Flies.

E. G. Garwood and Richard Wagner, builders of an aeroplane, tried out their air craft Sunday afternoon on the drill ground back of the Army Post. It flew to an altitude of about 500 feet. A high wind and slight engine trouble prevented the machine from going higher. The performance of the craft, in the opinion of the owners, has established its practicability. Garwood and Wagner plan to go on an exhibition tour in a few weeks.

With the exception of the canvas, carburetor and radiator every part of the aeroplane was made here. It has an 80-horsepower, 8-cylinder, V-type motor, turned out by Charles Beatty of San Antonio. Wagner made the frame work, planes, propellers and trappings. For the purpose of obtaining greater stability the upper plane was made longer. It is 37 feet in length and the lower 31 feet. The planes are 5 feet 8 1/2 inches wide. The space between the planes is five feet.
The propellers have a pitch of 12 feet and measure 9 feet in length.

Ben Johnson started the construction of the aeroplane some two years ago. Wagner, a student of Miss Katherine Stinson, an aviatrix who gave flights in San Antonio recently, became Johnson's partner about five months ago. The motor and part of the frame work had been completed at that time. About three months ago Johnson sold out to Garwood.—San Antonio Express.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is to treat the inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condi-

times out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition

What might have been a serious accident happened to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Suehs Thursday while enroute home from an extended visit to kinfolks and friends at D'Hanis.

While driving along slowly and only about two miles away from home, in some unaccountable manner, one of the links of the bridge broke which seemed to frighten the horse and it ran away at break neck speed.

When nearing Aug. Bader's pasture gate Mr. Suehs managed to turn the animals head towards it thinking it would stop at the gate, but all in vain, it knocked the gate down and did not stop until it reached Mr. Bader's yard.

Mrs. Suehs had jumped out before the gate was reached. She sustained a considerably bruised arm and minor bruises of the face, while Mr. Suehs passed through the ordeal unhurt.

Messrs. Emil Haegelin and sons Carl and Otto, John Liebold and Albert Schneider were San Antonio visitors Saturday on business and pleasure bound.

Mr. Hy. Vonlie made a flying business trip to San Antonio Sunday morning.

Joseph Carle.

Joseph Carle, 78 years old, for many years a business man of San Antonio, died last night at his home in Castrovillo, according to a message received by his son, Joe Carle of San Antonio. Mr. Carle was a native of Alsace, Germany. He came to America early in life and settled with a German colony at Castrovillo. For many years he conducted one of the largest mercantile establishments in Castrovillo. He left Castrovillo about seventeen years ago and came to San Antonio and engaged in business with his son, Joe Carle. Surviving are his widow, three daughters, Mrs. L. A. Haby, Dunlay; Mrs. Joe Huehner, Hondo; Mrs. Sebastian Marty, Castrovillo; three sons, George Carle, Hondo; Joseph Carle Jr., San Antonio, and John Carle of Dunlay. The funeral will be held at the St. Louis Catholic Church in Castrovillo at 3:30 this afternoon. Burial will be in the Castrovillo Cemetery.—Friday's Express.

Whereas, by virtue of an execution issued for costs of court out of the District Court of Medina County, Texas, on a judgment rendered in said court on the 29th day of April, A. D. 1914, in favor of the said A. F. Ritter et al. defendants, and against the said Thos. F. Hart, Mrs. Thos. F. Hart, L. H. Zinsmeister, Mrs. L. H. Infection and Insect Bites Dangerous.

Mosquitoes, flies and other insects, which breed quickly in garbage pails, ponds of stagnant water, barns, musty places, etc., are carriers of disease. Every time they bite you they inject poison into your system from which some dread disease may result. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment. It is antiseptic and a few drops will neutralize the infection caused by insect bites or rusty nails. Sloan's Liniment disinfects Cuts, Bruises and Sores. You cannot afford to be without it in your home. Money back if not satisfied. Only 25c. at your Druggist!

It's a waste of time to contradict the average woman. Give her time enough and she will contradict herself.

Stepping on a rusty nail has been the cause of many cases of lockjaw. The nail was not so much the fault as neglect of the wound. If such wounds were promptly cleansed and Ballard's Snow Liniment applied there would be no lockjaw, as the antiseptic properties of the liniment would counteract the poison and the wound would heal quickly. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill.

I wish every suffering woman would give

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Program to Be Followed at the Annual Meeting at Hondo For Five Days Inclusive

SEPTEMBER 7-11, 1914

County Superintendent's Announcement.

The Legal County Teachers' Institute for the white teachers of Medina County and Independent Districts of Hondo, Texas, at 9 a. m., Monday, September 7th, and continue in session for five full days.

Every teacher who teaches or expects to teach in Medina County is earnestly requested to be present at the opening of the session of the first day. Come prepared and prove yourself a progressive, wide-awake teacher. Come to improve yourself and thereby benefit the people of Medina County, who are beginning to realize the great needs of our schools. This is true not only of the Independent Districts, but of the Rural Districts as well, where the people have voted bonds and local maintenance taxes in order that their children may have better school houses and facilities.

The Institute is held for the benefit of the school children of the county and for the advancement of the cause of education in Medina County. Therefore, put your talents and energy into the Institute that you and others may become more proficient in the teaching profession. The teacher who is careless and disloyal to his profession is not a true teacher and is not giving his pupils, patrons nor the county a "square deal".

A small registration fee will be charged each teacher to help pay the expenses of prominent educators of the state who were called to address the teachers of Medina County. Should there remain a balance it will be applied to the Medina County Teachers' Library Fund.

The State Superintendent recommends Charter's "Teaching the Common Branches", and Horn's "The Best Things in Our Schools" to be used by the Institute. These books may be bought from C. A. Bryant & Co., Dallas, Texas, for Horn's text, and Southern School Book Department, Dallas, Texas, for Charter's text. In addition thereto I suggest that the books adopted by the Texas Reading Circle be studied. All these are thoughtful, carefully written books and should be studied by the teachers.

Trustees, patrons, Mothers' and Parents' Clubs, students of the High Schools and friends of the Institute are cordially invited to attend, submit questions and take part in all discussions.

The following committees are hereby appointed, of which the first named is chairman:

Committee on Local Institutes, Prof. L. H. Kidd, Prof. Peterson, Miss Thornton, Miss Duncan and Prof. Kennedy.

Summer Constipation Dangerous.

Constipation in Summer-time is more dangerous than in the fall, winter or spring. The food you eat is often contaminated and is more likely to ferment in your stomach. Then you are apt to drink much cold water during the hot weather, thus injuring your stomach. Colic, Fever, Headache, Poisoning and other ills are natural results. Po-Do-Lax will keep you well, as it increases the bile, the natural laxative, which rids the bowels of the congested poisonous waste. Po-Do-Lax will make you feel better. Pleasant and effective. Take a dose tonight. 50c. at your Druggist.

Ballard's Snow Liniment

Is a Healing Remedy for All Ailments of the Flesh of Man and Beast.

The speed with which this splendid Ointment heals up a bad wound or sore has surprised and pleased those who were accustomed to the slow and uncertain effect of less powerful remedies. It mends the lacerated skin so quickly that there is but little time lost from work. In relieving rheumatic pains, neuralgia, sciatica, it has done and is doing a wonderful work. Many chronic victims of these diseases have found to their great satisfaction that it cures an ailment in a fraction of the time required by the ordinary treatment.

It is equally effective in the best ailments of animals. Owners of blooded stock value it highly for two reasons. It heals sores and wounds quickly, and leaves no disfiguring scars. This remedy is needed in every home. If its great power and efficacy was generally known, no family would be without it.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per Bottle.

Prohibition Doomed!

After 64 years of activity by the friends of prohibition the average American today consumes almost six times as much liquors as did the average American of 1850.
In spite of this there is less drunkenness. With this wonderful change for the better, prohibition has had nothing whatever to do. The real reason is found in the fact that today there is a vastly greater amount of beer consumed. And beer is not conducive to drunkenness.

Prohibition is a failure and has had but one effect wherever tried: to put a ban upon the open and above-board drinking of beer and other light beverages and to drive men to secret, immoderate drinking of the strongest stimulants. This is notably true of Maine, a prohibition state. There is ten times as much drunkenness per capita as there is in France.

INDUSTRIAL ENTERTAIN- MENT.

The Largest Models of Agricultural Implements and Machinery on Exhibition at the Texas Cotton Palace.

The sun never sets on the dominion of King Cotton and he rules supreme over the most fertile, most profitable and most desirable portion of the globe.

Cotton has recast the occupation, remodeled the wardrobe and brought into life more industries than any other product the world has ever known. Since the brilliant genius of Eli Whitney gave us the cotton gin, mammoth manufacturing plants have been constructed to make gins, compresses, cotton mills, cotton oil mills, plows, cultivators, wagons, harness, railroad equipment, steamships, and all machinery needed in cultivating, manufacturing, transporting and marketing the crop.

King Cotton will sit on his throne at the Waco Cotton Palace November 1st to 16th and review a grand display of the latest improved models of agricultural implements and machinery that the world possesses.

King Cotton spends annually in the markets of the world one and one-quarter billion dollars for machinery and equipment to cultivate and harvest the crop. The king purchases annually two million agricultural implements; one thousand gins; compresses and mills, and spends millions of dollars in transportation equipment. This Monarch of Agriculture will inspect the exhibits in the Mechanical and Implement Department and manufacturers from all over the globe will exhibit the best products inventive genius and that mechanical skill of the age can devise, all seeking the good opinion of the king.

These exhibits will address the throne in tongues of iron and steel, and in language mute and powerful tell an eloquent story of their efficacy, utility, strength and economy.

It is a liberal education in mechanical science and a course of instruction in business to hear these masters of mechanics converse with the king and demonstrate how time and labor will be saved to the cotton fields of the South by giving them an opportunity to become royal servants. It will be one of the most interesting and engaging industrial entertainments that will be staged in Texas during the year and no one should miss it. The farmers will be especially benefited by visiting the palace and inspecting the subjects and servants of the king.

HAIDING THE FARMER

Moving Pictures Used by Department of Agriculture.

Used to Show Progressive Methods, and Authorities Are Convinced They Are Destined to Do a Great Work

Moving pictures are being used to instruct farmers throughout the United States in progressive methods of agriculture. They are being presented together with explanatory lectures, by officials of the department of agriculture. At the same time private lecturers in the employ of motion-picture companies, but working with the approval and co-operation of the department, are talking to farmers north, south, east and west, and with the aid of pictures are also showing them just how to obtain the best results. It is believed that this new method of demonstration will be vastly more effective than the old plan of distributing printed bulletins conveying the same information.

The importance to the country at large of this new work of the department of agriculture must appeal to the imagination of everyone. The scope of what the department may be able to accomplish in the way of providing subjects for the moving-picture plan of education is almost unlimited. Not only does the department itself demonstrate by direct appeal to the eye what improvements are possible to agriculturalists and stockmen, but it broadens its field by aiding private moving-picture concerns to present its films for the benefit of the public in cities and towns, as well as in rural districts.
Educational institutions such as agricultural colleges, universities and public schools are to be provided with films.

At present the bureau of animal industry of the department of agriculture is using six moving-picture films in connection with the lectures of its demonstrators and field workers, who travel from place to place instructing producers in the best and most progressive methods of raising stock and preventing cattle disease. Proper methods of dairying and the shipping of milk and other cattle products are also included in this educational movement.

GREATEST OF SVENGALIS

Sir Hubert Tree in the Famous Role.

Re-enacting Gettysburg.

The film depicting the battle of Gettysburg was made on the historic field. Parts of the great conflict were re-enacted by 2,500 men, dressed in old Civil War uniforms and dragging Civil War guns. Hundreds of horses were used. Thousands of dollars' worth of powder was burned. An old soldier went to see the battle film. He sat rapt, as the pall of smoke hid concealed Pickett's famous charge and the men and horses went down in realistic heaps. His friends looked at him to see how he took it. "Do you know," said he, "I didn't know they had these machines as long ago as war days?" Profits of the moving picture are enormous. The total business last year was upward of $300,000, involving five billion paid admissances to 20,000 shows.

Last of Famous Company.

Cleo Madison, leading woman with the Gold Seal company, has been invited by Walter Brookings, veteran aviator, to accompany him on a passenger-carrying altitude flight. Brookings is the only survivor of the original corps of Wright flyers. With Ralph Johnstone, Arch Hoxsey, Phil Parralee and Galbraith P. Rodgers, he first demonstrated the flying capabilities of the Wright machines. All the others have been killed.

Altogether Too Realistic.

In the "Romance of Copper Gate," a three-reel feature recently completed, Miss West had the misfortune to receive some very bad burns on her arms and face which kept her out of pictures for a week or ten days.

BOOKKEEPING FOR FARMS IS URGED

Simple Bookkeeping Will Enable Farmer to Check Cost.

Farming is the only business which has not developed standard bookkeeping methods. The majority of farmers keep no books at all, and still they are engaged in a business which demands constant attention and accurate knowledge of the day to day progress. The division of Public Welfare of the University of Texas Extension Department recently undertook a study of marketing farm products, and naturally desired to know the cost of production of farm products.
Owing to the fact that few farmers keep an intelligible set of books, this important data is very difficult to obtain.

This bookkeeping can be made very simple and the record kept without difficulty. Such record will consist of all the items, which show what has been paid in the way of rent for land, wages for labor, and interest on capital used. If such record is checked up from day to day, recording the amount of land used and such items as the use of machinery and the number of days labor given to the crop, it will be found that it is easy to determine about what it costs the farmer to produce his product.

If any considerable percentage of farmers kept accurate books, the study of marketing problems, as well as problems in efficiency of farm management would be greatly facilitated. The Division of Public Welfare of the State University undertakes to suggest a simple method of keeping a farm record to any farmer who cares to apply for such information.

Movement Started For Better Babies

Texas Takes Steps in the New Program of Race Development.

Better corn, better cotton, better hogs, and better tails and better that have been preached enthusiastically in Texas during the past few years, but there is no "better movement" so enthusiastic as the "better babies" movement.

So far it has taken the form of contests, scientifically judged by competent people. The contest furnishes not only an inspiration to those exhibiting their products, but it is educational in that it enforces upon the mind of the fond parents just what are the points of excellence in a baby, and just what characteristics are counted as defects.

The Better Babies Contest is really a popular, yet scientific movement to insure better babies and a better race. It consists of entering, examining and awarding prizes to children of three years or less on exactly the same basis or principles that are applied to live-stock shows. Mere beauty does not count. Physical and mental development only are considered. The Better Babies Contest insures a better race of Americans, because it teaches parents how to improve the physical condition of children. It arouses interest in the conservation of child life and health in all forms of child welfare. It forges a connecting link between parents and teachers, it promotes civic interest in children of the community, their schools and their recreations.

The Child Welfare Department of the University of Texas believes that, by the interest aroused in these contests, the attention of parents may be called to many needs of young children both as to the care of their bodies and of their minds. Miss Jessie P. Rich, of this department, therefore, is offering to cooperate heartily with any persons interested in the Better Babies Movement, and will cheerfully supply information as to how to hold these contests, how to secure score cards, etc. Also, whenever possible, a special child welfare lecturer will be sent from the University at Austin to assist in the county contests.

Nine hundred and eighty young men and women attended the University of Texas Summer School in 1913.

One hundred and seventy-two young women received lessons in domestic economy in the University of Texas during the session of 1914.

CORN SHOW A SUCCESS

Texas Wins Many Prizes—Marketing Problems Discussed.

Dallas, Texas.—The Sixth National Corn Exposition, which has just closed in this city after a two weeks successful session, is declared by those participating in the event to be one of the greatest agricultural displays ever held in the South. The cream of the agricultural products of the nation was on display and the attendance was drawn from every section of the United States and Canada. The educational features of the exposition appealed alike to the farmer and the business man and taught them both an economic lesson in the matter of production.

It is the purpose of the exposition each year to display the most wonderful achievements of the American farmer and to point out the best and most effective manner of getting the full fruits of his soil. This is the first time that Texas has been honored by the National Corn Exposition and the session just closed is said to be among its most successful meetings, thirty-seven states and provinces being represented.

Texas Wins Prizes.

In the awards for the best prairie hay, Texas made a clean sweep, having taken first, second and third prizes for this product, which places us ahead of all the world in the production of this line of feed-stuff. In the forage crop competition contest, Texas also came off victorious, having won prizes on sorghum, kaffir corn and milo maize.

Miscellaneous Exhibits.

While corn and other agricultural products were the predomi-nating feature of the exposition, there were other exhibits placed on display by enterprising manufacturers which afforded a pleasing variety. Among the miscellaneous exhibits noted were many commodities and time-saving devices for the farmer, such as improved farm machinery, silos, etc. The farm wife also came in for her share of attention, and churns, cream separators, lighting apparatus and other conveniences were shown which tend to make the burden of the farm woman easier.

Every phase of rural welfare was discussed by American and Canadian officials, special attention being given to rural co-operation, the tenant farmer problem and improved public highways. A model rural community exhibit attracted perhaps more attention than any other display. A miniature landscape was shown with roads and walks laid out, with a neighborhood church, school and picnic grounds.
There were also shown in this model rural community a co-operative laundry, creamery and plant for supplying the neighborhood with water; across the road was a country school with its garden and demonstration plot. A baseball ground and field for athletic contests completed this interesting exhibit.

Better Marketing Methods Discussed.

Not only was the productive side of agriculture dealt with by the Exposition, but the marketing feature of the question was also given attention. In the address of Hon.
Hutton W. Summers, who was sent by a committee of the National House of Representatives to address the exposition on better marketing methods for the American farmer, it was pointed out that the big crop is a calamity to the farmer unless adequate marketing facilities are afforded. Mr. Summers stated the problem is one which cannot be met by the farmer alone, nor yet by the business man, but that it would take the co-operation of both, assisted by the government, before the problem could be solved. He advocated the creation of a bureau, or department, by Congress, the function of which should be to bring into co-ordinate action the forces that can work together in solving this important problem to the satisfaction of all concerned, and especially the American farmer, who is most vitally interested.

W. M. Halfacre, Dexter, Mo., bought Foley Kidney Pills for Mrs.
Halfacre, who was down on her back with kidneys so sore he had to help her move. He says, "She would cry with pain across her kidneys, but after she took the second bottle of Foley Kidney Pills, she was as well and strong as ever." W. H. Windrow.

The reputation of many a man is so bad that it might be a good thing for him to lose it entirely.

Just an average boy—no—he that Life could do as much for

It is easy, and the results are

The Editor's Troubles.

The Editor sat in his big easy chair
On a bright, rushing day in the fall And calmly surveyed the gay trooping throng As they passed by his door one and all
It was clear to be seen by the look on his face He suffered an agonized case of the blues For he thought of the bills at home to be paid By giving the public the news.
Consulting the pages of a ledger near by Only deepened his look of dismay,
As the aggregate sum of arrears thereon Seemed to promise not a fast coming pay.
He dreamed of the good things others enjoyed And swore at his lack empty purse, Of all the troubles man ever had Bad pay is a nerve racking curse.
It's not a square deal they're handing to me For really I'm working over time To chronicle the doings of this little town Of life as one beautiful rhyme.
To others who read of this wonderful place As painted and pictured by me Whose columns I use to boost up the town
As a place where blessings flow free.
I write up Conventions, horse races, and fairs And sometimes butcher the truth.
When I tell of a wedding where the old maid was In the first fair blossom of youth.
I suppose they will pay in the sweet By and bye Is the only excuse I can give But my credit's far stretched and money all gone So how in the deuce will I live.

BABY BEEF A FEATURE.

Boys and Girls Will Show Results of Full-Feeding to Calves with Silage.

Baby beets and silos are now going hand in hand, arousing the stock producers of Texas to the splendid possibilities of profit when later-day scientific methods are adopted. Baby beets and silos will play a most prominent part in the National Feeders and Breeders' Show, which will be held at Fort Worth November 22 to 29.

Baby beef as a source of wealth for the Texas producer is little more than a year old. Conceived by a Texas livestock expert, it was heartily endorsed by the Texas Department of Agriculture, but at last spring's National Feeders and Breeders' Show there were only twelve entries. Today, however, there are more than 500 Boys' and Girls' Baby Beefs Clubs, with a total membership of more than 1,200 youngsters between the ages of eight and eighteen, in Texas, and one county alone—Coleman—will send sixty entries to the show this year. Other counties will contribute in proportion and the entries in this class alone are expected to number far more than one hundred. Through the children, the Department of Agriculture is achieving considerable success in arousing the elders, inasmuch as a number of prominent ranchmen are taking up with the movement.

Through the introduction of the silo this has been made practicable as, indeed, this same storage tank of livestock prosperity is transforming Texas into a greater feeding ground for cattle than it has ever been before.

People who are interested in the silo will have an opportunity of seeing all of the recognized styles that are being introduced in the Southwest. "Silo Row" will be a feature of the show and men skilled in the filling of the great tanks and the principles of feeding will be on hand to explain each little detail.

The small producer of livestock, who could not afford to keep the fine individual animals he displays at the country fair for spring exhibit at Fort Worth, will be much benefited by the change of date to fall. In this manner, Fort Worth's big show will get a more representative showing of cattle and the small exhibitor will get his just dues. From early indications, every department of the Feeders and Breeders' Show will be more comprehensive and complete than ever before.

AT THE GRAY CASTLE

By CORA A. CLAUSSEN.

"Why don't we go on?"
Marjorie leaned forward anxiously. It was too dark to see the road. Only the broadening pathway of light thrown out by the car's lamps showed ahead of them.

"Neri!" she called again, quickly. "What is it?"

From the side of the road came Neri's voice, soothing and musical, in his own Palermese dialect.

"Some one has been hurt, signorita. We very nearly ran over him, but I stopped in time. He is half dead, stabbed, a little below the heart."
"Oh, Neri, and we're miles from town. Can you lift him in here?"

"Signorita, he is very badly hurt. There are lights on the mountain yonder. Let me go for help."

"And perhaps find the very people who stabbed him." "No," shivered Marjorie. "I hate your Sicilian neighborliness. Lift him in, and I'll sit up over on this side. How far is Areoli?"

"Too far for tonight. He would not live. There is a castle on the farther side of this mountain. The Rassalloni family live there. We might find some help there. A village lies below it, possibly a surgeon, and a priest. He will need both before morning."

"Oh, be cheerful, Neri, please. It's quite dreadful enough without burying him already. Can I help you?"

She leaned forward, but Neri had lifted the man in his arms and brought him to the tonneau. He was unconscious. As Neri propped him back on the seat, Marjorie saw he was young, and no peasant type. The car rolled along at top speed, taking the rise of the road easily without jolting.

"The castle, signorita," Neri called back over his shoulder. Above them Marjorie saw a lonely mass of masonry, clustering piles around one high tower.

Neri stopped before a postern door. Above it hung a lantern lighted. After repeated pulling at an iron ring fastened to a bell rope at the side the door opened, and an old Italian peered out anxiously. Neri spoke rapidly to him, and he took down the lantern to hold it before the unconscious face.

"Santa Maria!" he gasped. "Where did you find him?"

"Don't ask questions," Marjorie exclaimed. "Get some help. He has been stabbed. Carry him in."

Marjorie waited, a silent, restless figure swathed in gray silk motor coat and gray veil, while they bore the limp form into the shadowy courtyard. She followed slowly, under an arched door into a dim old hall, high ceiled and spacious. Here they laid him on a couch, and Neri talked in low tones with the old man.

"What is it, Neri?" asked his mistress impatiently. "Does he know him?"

"Know him? Signorita, we have had the fortune to rescue the Marchese di Rassalloni. He has been set upon by certain roaming banditti whom he had threatened. He would have died if we had not happened by. The marchesa, his mother—"

"I know all about her, Neri," Marjorie smiled in a tantalizing fashion all her own. Deliberately she went to the couch and looked down at the face there. She had been evading meeting the marchesa for days. Lady Mooreparke had talked of no one else.

"He says it is dangerous for us to return tonight," continued Neri. "Perhaps if you would stay here with the marchesa, signorita, I could make the trip, and relieve your father's mind."

"I think I will stay, Neri," she answered.

The following day Ira Bradshaw, conveyed by Lady Mooreparke, called at the old castle. Marjorie was in the garden.

Bradshaw stopped under the heart-flowering vines of the pergola to look at her. She sat beside a couch, leaning forward and talking eagerly. Her lap was filled with roses. She had tucked a dark red one over her ear like a Sicilian girl, and another, 100 mate, lay on the marchesa's breast.

"You saved my life last night," he was saying. "It lies in your hands, signorita, like your roses, to do with as you please."

Marjorie raised the roses to her lips and smiled down at him.

"You are to stay here as our guests for awhile, did you know that?" he added.

"I know. I told Neri last night to tell dad I wanted to stay," she said. "And all the rest is right on the knees of the gods. They've started something that interests me."

He reached for both her hands impetuously, but Marjorie rose, letting the roses fall.

"When you are well," she warned. "You mustn't make love with a wound in your side. And see, it is only one day."

"It is the day of fate," he said huskily. "If you are not kind, I shall have to die from the wound."

She bent over him teasingly, yet with tender eyes.

"Which wound, Guido?" she whispered. "Love's or the banditti's? Haven't I said I wanted to stay? Get well just as soon as you can. I will wait until you can ride down the mountain with me, before I go away."

"But you will never go."
"Oh, yes, I will, signor," she smiled. "because, you see, I always wanted to be married in my own land."
